Bring your conference to ours

Meet at One:

Contact us for flexible options

- Get the privacy and control of your own event, but access to the energy, people and content already gathered at PM One.
- Bring your meeting to where the industry is already.
- Host your team, clients or partners in your own private space at Propertymark One, while making the most of everything happening beyond the door.
- Hold your own meetings, workshops or strategy sessions throughout the day, then step straight into the exhibition, networking and selected keynote sessions alongside professionals from across the property industry.

Team Away Day

- Bring colleagues together without missing what is happening across the industry.

Client Event

- Host key customers privately, then experience One together.

Training or Workshop

- Run your own session while giving attendees access to a much broader industry event.

Industry Roundtable

- Gather the right people behind closed doors before joining the wider conversation.

Your Package Could Include

- Access to the exhibition
- Opening and closing keynote access
- Networking opportunities
- Wi-Fi and AV
- Room signage
